

Amazing news, says PM Modi as MP earns another stripe for tiger conservation Bhopal: Overwhelmed by another stripe which Madhya Pradesh earned the other day for its Madhav National Park, Prime Minister Narendra Modi posted on social media about the new recognition of the park as the state's ninth tiger reserve - a true sanctuary for these majestic creatures for many years. The state already wears the title of "Tiger State". Dhankhar in AIIMS, wishes him speedy recovery "Amazing news for wildlife lovers! India is blessed with wildlife diversity and a culture that celebrates wildlife. We will always be at the forefront of protecting animals and contributing to a sustainable planet," the Prime Minister shared on his X handle. State Chief Minister Dr Mohan Yadav responded warmly to the Prime Minister's tweet: "Heartfelt thanks to the Hon'ble Prime Minister for your visionary leadership in designating Madhav National Park as India's 58th and MP's 9th Tiger Reserve! Madhya Pradesh is proud to lead wildlife conservation and protect our biodiversity." Just a few days earlier, Chief Minister Yadav had declared that tiger reserve status would soon be granted to Madhav National Park in the Shivpuri district. He also mentioned the imminent release of a pair of tigers into the park. Madhya Pradesh has already earned its stripes as the "Tiger State", attracting wildlife enthusiasts and emerging as a prominent wildlife tourism destination. The Chief Minister highlighted that the increase in tourist influx in the Chambal region would provide local youth with more jobs and self-employment opportunities. In an exciting first, leopards have been spotted in Kuno National Park in Sheopur district, part of the Chambal region that is also home to African cheetahs. Additionally, efforts are underway on a gharial and dolphin project in the Chambal River, the Chief Minister said. Situated in the Shivpuri district, Madhav National Park was initially recognized in 1956 as Shivpuri National Park, spanning 167 square kilometers. In 1958, it was renamed after Maharaja Madho Rao Scindia of the Scindia dynasty. The park features Sakhya Sagar, a man-made reservoir designated as a Ramsar site. Shivpuri town, once the summer capital, was a larger park and a former hunting preserve of the Scindia Maharajas of Gwalior. Unfortunately, the area suffered degradation after India's Independence, and the last resident wild tigers were seen in Madhav National Park in the late 1970s. In 1982, a plan to expand the park along the Sindh River was proposed, including a corridor connecting it to the original 167 square kilometers, augmenting the area to 354 square kilometers. With its new designation as a tiger reserve, Madhav National Park will now span 1,751 square kilometers, boasting a core area of 375 square kilometers and a buffer area of 1,276 square kilometers.

Congress Finalising MLC Candidates in Telangana: High Command to Receive Report Soon

Hyderabad: The Congress party is moving towards finalising its candidates for the MLC seats under the MLA quota in Telangana. Senior AICC leaders have held discussions with Chief Minister Revanth Reddy, Deputy Chief Minister Bhatti Vikramarka, TPCC chief and minister Uttam Kumar Reddy regarding the selection process. A crucial Zoom meeting was conducted with Telangana Congress leaders, overseen by party in-charge Meenakshi Natarajan. She is expected to submit a report to the high command shortly. As part of the political strategy, the Congress is likely to allocate one MLC seat to the Communist Party of India (CPI). For the remaining three seats, the party is considering a balanced representation based on social equations. There is a strong possibility of one seat each being allotted to Scheduled Castes (SC) and Scheduled Tribes (ST) candidates, while the third seat may go to a Backward Class (BC) or an Open Category (OC) candidate. The Congress leadership is aiming to strike a social and political balance in the selection process while ensuring smooth coordination with its allies. A final decision from the high command is expected soon.

AP Home Minister Anitha attends Women's Day event, says women play key role in society

Home Minister Vangalapudi Anitha attended the International Women's Day celebrations at Andhra Medical College in Visakhapatnam. The event, organised by the Andhra Pradesh Government Nurses Association, featured prominent figures including MLA Vamsi Krishna Srinivas, NTR Vaidya Seva Chairman Seethamraju Sudhakar, former MLA Gandhi Babji, and various officials. As the chief guest, Home Minister Anitha highlighted the vital role of women in society, describing them as "queens" and commending nurses for their maternal care towards patients. She underscored the importance of women's empowerment, noting, "If there are no women, there are no men," and acknowledged the challenges women face while balancing professional and domestic responsibilities. Anitha urged that alongside raising girls, boys should be nurtured with equal care and responsibility. She encouraged women to cultivate self-confidence and courage in their professional journeys. In her address to the media, the Home Minister promised to bring the issues faced by nurses to the attention of Chief Minister Chandrababu Naidu and advised the installation of CCTV cameras in every ward of KGH for enhanced safety. Moreover, she recommended that women utilise the Shakti app, reinforcing the government's ongoing commitment to women's safety and empowerment.

COMMISSIONING OF BACHELI-KIRANDUL SECTION DOUBLING

A SIGNIFICANT MILESTONE

Waltair Division of East Coast Railway achieved a significant milestone today (09.03.2025) with the commissioning of the 9.143kms Bachel-Kirandul section doubling, authorized by Commissioner of Railway Safety (South Eastern Circle) Shri Brijesh Kumar Mishra. The inspection was conducted under stringent security measures, underscores a major enhancement in railway infrastructure vital for the regions development.

Accompanied by Shri Lalit Bohra, Divisional Railway Manager Waltair; Shri Gautam Srinivas, Chief Administrative Officer (Construction); Shri K Dhanunjaya Rao Chief Engineer (Track); Shri

Gourishankar Rao, Chief Engineer (Construction); Chief Electrical Engineer (Construction) Shri Manjit Singh Sansanwal; Chief Signal and Telecom Engineer (Construction) Shri KS Varma; Deputy CRS Shri Asutosh Kumar and other Senior Officials, Commissioner of Railway Safety oversaw comprehensive inspections and trials crucial for operational safety and efficiency. The inspections included track assessments on motor trolleys, evaluations of Bachel and Kirandul Railway stations, scrutiny of new signalling systems, and examination of the newly constructed bridges. Further, speed trial was successfully conducted on the newly laid line, affirming readiness for operational deployment.

The completion of this doubling project in the Bachel-Kirandul region of Chhattisgarh is a strategic advancement for the Waltair Division. This segment, challenged by security reasons, now boasts enhanced capacity to facilitate the smooth transit of iron ore from Bailadila Mines to various parts of the country. The upgraded infrastructure not only supports increased traffic demands but also fortifies connectivity crucial for regional economic growth. The successful commissioning of the 9.143kms section doubling underscores our commitment to enhancing rail connectivity and operational efficiency in the region.

कार्लमार्क्स का कहना है के धर्म अफीम की गोली है। कार्लमार्क्स ने सच ही कहा है। जब धर्म कड़वा के ढांचे में ढलकर रहजाए तो यही धर्म का नशा अफीम के नशे से ज्यादा असरदार (प्रभाविक) होता है। और यह साबित भी हुआ है। इतिहास साक्षी है के, इस धरती पर धर्म के नाम पर जितना खून (रक्त) बहाया गया उतना और किसी के नाम से कभी नहीं बहाया गया है। ठंडे दिमाग से इस वास्तविकता को भी समझना चाहिए।

धर्म के नाम पर जितने युद्ध, हत्याएं, लूट - पाट, बलात्कार, आगजनी हुई है उतनी और किसी के नाम से नहीं हुई होगी। यह बात केवल भूतकाल की नहीं है वर्तमान में भी यही हो रहा है। मानवता के रक्षा करने वाले धर्म को ही खतरे में बताकर कुछ धूर्त लोग अपने तामसी लक्ष्य को प्राप्त करने के लिए धर्म खतरे में है कहकर भीड़ को उकसा रहे हैं। युवाओं को भड़का रहे हैं। प्यार, मोहब्बत का पाठ देने वाले धर्म के नाम पर मानव मानव के बीच नफरतें बढ़ाई जा रही है। सच्चे धार्मिक और बुद्धिमान वर्ग चुप्पी साधे बैठा है।

यही सभी बातें इंसान को धर्म का विरोध करने को बाध्य किए हैं, कर रहे हैं और करते रहेंगे। अब सवाल उठता है के, क्या हकीकत (वास्तव) में इन सभी दुष्कर्मों में धर्म का हाथ है? क्या धर्म ने ऐसी शिक्षा दिया है? तो इस बात का जवाब तहकीक

के बाद में "ना" में ही आयेगा। तथाकथित स्वार्थी, पाखंडी लोगों ने मानवीय मूल्यों पर आधारित धर्म के सिद्धांतों का तोड़ मरोड़ कर, धर्म के नाम पर यह जघन्य अपराधों को अंजाम दिए हैं और दे रहे हैं।

कुछ लोग ऐसे स्वार्थी पाखंडियों के द्वारा किए गए धर्म के वक्रीकरण को आधार बनाकर धर्म को मानने वाले भोलेभाले लोगों का, धर्म का और धार्मिक लोगों का मजाक उड़ाया करते हैं। ईश्वर पर आस्था रखने वाले को कुछ लोग अहमक (बुद्धिहीन) समझते हैं। लेकिन धार्मिक व्यक्ती की ईश्वर में आस्था रखना ही उस की बुद्धिमान होने की दलील होती है। ईश्वर पर श्रद्धा, विश्वास रखना बुद्धिमान व्यक्ती के लक्षण है। मैं यह बात अपनी तरफ से नहीं कह रहा हूँ बल्के यह बात पैगंबर मोहम्मद (स्व.) के पहिले उत्तराधिकारी हजरत इमाम अली इब्न अबू तालिब अलैहिस्सलाम की है। आप इमाम

अली इब्न अबू तालिब अलैहिस्सलाम कहते हैं के, "मोमिन (धार्मिक) उस वक्त तक ईमान (ईश्वर पर विश्वास) नहीं लाया जब तक वह अक्लमंद (बुद्धिमान) न हुआ।" (हैदरी कुतुबखाना मुंबई द्वारा प्रकाशित उर्दू पुस्तक तजल्लियाते हिकमत, बाब इल्म 150, हदीस नं. 83, पेज 334)।

उपरोक्त बात खुदको धार्मिक कहने वाले सबके लिए लागू नहीं होती। यह बात केवल उन बुद्धिमान, ज्ञानी, सच्चे धार्मिक लोगों के लिए लागू होती है जो लोग अपने बुद्धी का इस्तेमाल करके, सच्चे धर्म को पढ़कर, समझकर और अपने अनुभव के आधार पर ईश्वर के अस्तित्व में विश्वास रखते हैं। धर्म मूर्खों का नहीं बुद्धिमान व्यक्ती का विश्वास है। नशा नहीं होश है। मूर्ख नहीं परिपूर्ण जागरूकता है।

Sundays Serenity

Sunday mornings gentle breeze, Awakens me from slumbers ease.
The sun shines bright,
with warm rays,
A new day dawns, and nights gaze.

The world outside is slow and still,
As if the day itself were chill.
No rush, no fuss, just peaceful ease, A day to unwind, and let the heart breathe.

The morning dew, like diamonds bright, Adorns the grass, with sparkling light.
Birds sing sweet melodies, so pure and clear,

As nature awakens, without a fear.

Sundays a day, to relax and play,
To let the worries of the week drift away.
A day to recharge, and renew the soul,
To find the calm, that makes us whole.

So heres to Sunday, a day of rest,
A day to dream, and be at our best.
May it bring us peace,
and joy of heart,
And fill our lives, with love and every part.

Keep Values.

The boy is running here and there.
To get the victory , the trial is pure.
You know very well ,about success.
Only hard work is the access.

Not only to achieve the victory,
But also the values by him are mystery.
He can make real history, Without values it will be misery.
Anything cant erase the smile on his face.
In anytime, he wont loss his grace.
The secret behind the grace is simple.
The power of purity is an example.
Even though at the age of defeat,
He will put trust all his feet.

After some stage and age of his life,
He will learn how to work on edge of knife.
How to stab in ones back and drowns life.
He learnt,many ways to reach the success.
But his mind forgot the royal access.
In the process he will get lot of money.
He smells money ,always like Honey.
But he will be dropped into death valley,
He will be unfit to participate in the rally.
The fate, written by God is up to date.
We cannot change it in wrong route.
Having own values is always best quote.

My Garden has been gives wonderful scent Which was helping to lean ,things with pleasant .

Everyone comes in to my garden with no hope
.But when they are return they will go full of hope

My Garden begins early in the morning at 8pm
,with lot of expectations and ends at 5pm with the great progresses and happiness

Therefore my Garden is

The Eternal Mystery

A marvel vast, this world unknown, a secret yet to be outshone,
The quest for life, how it was sown, remains a tale in times own tone.

Like seeds that rest in earths embrace, to sprout and bloom with gentle grace,
So too does life take form and place, within natures endless chase.

Some, like seeds, in silence grow, some, like earth, move to and fro, Yet when they meet, as laws bestow, their kind is born, lifes streams shall flow.

No force supreme, no power untold, yet life unfolds as days behold, Its rhythm runs through young and old, by natures path, not bound by gold.

From earth and sky, from air and sea, from fire unseen, flows destiny,
Not forces grand, nor wills decree, but natures own simplicity.

No fruit is born without its seed, no breath exists without its creed, Yet man, in folly, fails to heed, and crafts illusions to mislead.

A withered tree stands cold and bare, no hands revive its lost affair, Yet man still seeks with restless stare, to breathe back life, to grasp thin air.

The truth remains,
untouched, untamed, the laws of time have not been named,
For natures course cannot be claimed, nor can its will be ever framed.

Divine it is, this grand design, where fate and form in bond align, Beyond the reach of mans confine, a force unseen, yet so divine.

Let echoes rise, let wisdom flow, let truth like rivers freely grow, For nature reigns, and we must know, its rule is all, above, below.

This tale must stand, its essence bright, a beacon cast in endless light, Unchallenged, pure, in boundless flight, the voice of truth, the soul of night.

Respect the Host

Respect the host, honor their space.
A simple courtesy—an unspoken gesture of care.
Inform before you arrive, for in that small act lies understanding,
and in understanding,
relationships thrive.

A host is not just a provider of shelter, but a person with their own life, their own rhythm.
Respect is not something to demand;
it is something to give, something that returns only when offered freely.

Yet, how often do we take it for granted?
Walking in unannounced, assuming welcome
without a thought.
Forgetting that hospitality is not an obligation, but a kindness extended.

Ego whispers—
Why should I inform?
I have the right to visit.
But in that thought, I forget—the host, too, has a right to space,
to choice, to dignity.

A true guest arrives not with entitlement, but with gratitude.
For respect is the foundation of every bond, and only those who give it truly understand its worth.

Shreya Ghoshal celebrates 25 years in music industry

Renowned playback singer Shreya Ghoshal marked a significant milestone in her career as she celebrated 25 years in the music industry during the IIFA 2025 event. Interestingly, as IIFA commemorated its 25th anniversary, Shreya realized that her journey in the music world has also spanned nearly the same time. Speaking about the moment, Shreya expressed her joy, stating, "With IIFA celebrating its silver jubilee, it's almost 25 years of my career as well. It feels surreal to be here on such a special occasion. Performing in Rajasthan and being a part of these celebrations is truly an honor. There are also nominations, so my happiness is on cloud nine right now." While enjoying professional highs, Shreya also addressed a concerning issue regarding her X (formerly Twitter) account. She revealed that her account was hacked on February 13th, and despite numerous attempts to regain control, she has received no resolution from the X team. Taking to Instagram, she alerted her fans, "Please do not click on any link or believe any message from my X account as they are all spam. I will personally update through a video if the account is recovered." Shahid Kapoor shares update on his Vishal Bhardwaj directorial co-starring Triptii Dimri. Additionally, Shreya Ghoshal recently lent her voice in support of Prime Minister Narendra Modi's Anti-Obesity campaign. Through an Instagram video, she encouraged people to make healthier lifestyle choices, reduce oil and sugar intake, and promote nutritious food for children. She emphasized, "Health is the greatest wealth, and making small changes at home can create a huge impact." With her illustrious career continuing to inspire millions, Shreya Ghoshal remains a force to reckon with in the music industry.

Aha Revives 3 Roses with a Playful 'Fawns vs. Prawns' Twist for Season 2

Marking International Women's Day with a touch of wit, aha OTT has officially confirmed the return of 3 Roses for a second season. The much-anticipated announcement came via a playful teaser featuring lead actress Eesha Rebba and comedian Harsha Chemudu, reigniting a light-hearted yet amusing debate – is it 'Fawns' or 'Prawns'? The teaser revisits the unforgettable Pelli Chupulu scene from the first season, a moment that had audiences in splits. This time, the clip adds a humorous spin, cleverly setting the tone for the upcoming season. Fans can expect more laughter, drama, and engaging narratives as the show continues to explore the lives of its dynamic female leads. Helmed by K. Kiran Kumar, with writing by Ravi Namburri and Sandeep Bolla, 3 Roses is a vibrant blend of comedy and heartfelt storytelling. The series follows three ambitious young women as they strive to establish their own firm, tackling personal and professional challenges along the way. Backed by producer duo Maruthi and SKN, and featuring a lively score by Ajay Arasada, the new season promises fresh energy and compelling storytelling. While the original trio—Eesha Rebba, Payal Rajput, and Poorna—formed the heart of the first season, the latest teaser hints at a possible shift. Eesha Rebba subtly suggests that two new faces might step in to replace Payal Rajput and Poorna, bringing a fresh dynamic to the narrative. As 3 Roses gears up for its second chapter, audiences can look forward to another entertaining ride filled with humour, warmth, and inspiring moments.

IIFA 2025: Shahid Kapoor shares update on his Vishal Bhardwaj directorial co-starring Triptii Dimri Mumbai: Bollywood actor Shahid Kapoor, who grabbed the headline following his sweet interaction with ex-girlfriend Kareena Kapoor Khan at the IIFA, has shared an update on his upcoming project. The actor walked the green carpet at the 25th edition of IIFA prior to the IIFA Digital Awards, and said that his film with Vishal Bhardwaj is currently under production and in all likelihood, it will be released by the end of 2025. The actor spoke with the media stationed at the green carpet, and also shared his thoughts on IIFA honouring digital content. He told the media, "It's a very good thing that IIFA has started to recognise and honour digital content. Digital medium has so many good artists making good stories with a message. In the past few years, digital content has seen a meteoric rise. I also did a series called 'Farzi' on OTT 2-3 years ago. I did the series because I love digital content, and I thought people would like to see me in a series which has good content". He further mentioned, "Hopefully, in sometime there shall be 'Farzi 2', I hope that should happen. On OTT that's the agenda. Apart from that I'm shooting a film with Vishal Bhardwaj, and hopefully it will be out by the end of the year". The film marks Shahid's fourth collaboration with Vishal Bhardwaj after 'Kaminey', 'Haider' and 'Rangoon'. It also stars Triptii Dimri, and is an action-thriller. Talking about his preparations for his performance in IIFA, the actor said, "Bilkul bhi taiyyari nahi hai bas stage mil jaaye toh main thodi rehearsal kar lunga (I'm not at all prepared for my performance. I just wish I could get the stage access so that I can round off at least the basics)". When asked where all he has been to in Jaipur during IIFA celebrations, the actor playfully responded, "I saw the Hyatt hotel, then the parking lot (laughs). So, I didn't get the time to explore the city and go sight-seeing but I love Jaipur".

Kriti Sanon & Kanika Dhillon win big at IIFA 2025 as 'Do Patti' bags 'Best Actor' & 'Best Original Story'

Mumbai: Donning the hat of a producer for the first time, Kriti Sanon and Kanika Dhillon have created waves at IIFA 2025 with "Do Patti". The writer-producer has received the award for 'Best Story Original', whereas Kriti Sanon has bagged the 'Best Actor- Female'. Sharing pictures with the award, Kriti penned on her Instagram handle, "First Best Actor for my first production #DoPatti at the first IIFA digital awards!! 2 big wins for DoPatti, Congratulations my partner @kanika.d !! #BestStory #BestActor...Thank you @iifa and a huge thank you to the audiences for all the love and support! A shoutout to my team for making me look and feel my best yesterday for this big moment!" Talking about the big win, Kanika shared, "Do Patti is my maiden project as a producer and the love it has been getting across the globe is surreal. Any kind of appreciation feels magical - honoured and humbled - with all the audience's love and accolades. Made under the direction of Shashanka Chaturvedi, the film went on to become the most-watched Netflix India Original of the year. "Do Patti" revolves around twin sisters, Saumya and Shailee (Kriti) harboring deep secrets, and a determined police inspector, Vidya Jyothi (Kajol) seeking to uncover the truth in an attempted murder case. Between two pretty twin sisters, one is timid and introverted while the other is bubbly and daring. Up next, Kriti will be a part of Anand L Rai's "Tere Ishk Mein", opposite Dhanush. The movie is a spiritual successor to the 2013 film "Raanjhanaa", delving deeper into themes of unrequited love, and emotional conflict. On the other hand, Kanika is now set to release her highly anti-pated project, a revenge action drama, "Gandhari", starring Taapsee Pannu and Ishwak Singh. Helmed by National award-winning director Devashish Makhija, the movie has been produced under Kanika's Kathha Pictures banner.

Kareena brings out her inner Poo once again for IIFA performance

Mumbai: Bollywood diva Kareena Kapoor Khan brought out her inner 'Poo', an iconic over-the-top character she performed in the 2001 blockbuster "Kabhi Khushi Kabhie Gham", during the practice sessions ahead of her big performance at the 25th edition of IIFA Awards grand ceremony on Sunday. The official Instagram handle of IIFA shared a video from backstage, where Kareena was present. The video had the diva dressed in a white T-shirt paired with yoga pants and sunglasses. Looking at the camera, Kareena said the iconic dialogue "Kaun hai yeh jisne dobara mudke mujhe nahi dekha, who is he?" Kareena's character of Poo is one of the most memorable and loved roles from the actress's career. Not just her fashion, it was the sassy one-liners that made Poo stand out from all the other roles the actress, who is fondly referred to as Bebo, has performed on screen. Some of the most popular lines said by Poo were "Kaun hai yeh jisne dobara mudke mujhe nahi dekha", "P.H.A.T – Pretty, Hot And Tempting" and "Tumhe koi haq nahi banta ki tum itni khoobsurat lago. Not fair" among many others. "Kabhi Khushi Kabhie Gham..." a family drama was directed by Karan Johar. The film also stars Amitabh Bachchan, Jaya Bachchan, Shah Rukh Khan, Kajol and Hrithik Roshan, and with Rani Mukerji in an extended guest appearance. It tells the story of an Indian multimillionaire family, which faces troubles and misunderstandings over their adopted son's marriage to a girl belonging to a lower socio-economic group than them. In 2022, Kareena spoke to IANS about if Poo deserves a movie to herself. She also shared what makes the character, who comes from Chandni Chowk in New Delhi and then moves to London with her sister essayed by Kajol and brother-in-law played by Shah Rukh Khan, have such a massive fan following. "I think for the way she is, the way she talks, the kind of millennial Gen-Z kinda words that she uses connect somehow. So, I think it is because of that more than anything else. Let's see a film someday, who knows."
