

CJI-led Bench to hear PIL against Places of Worship Act 1991 on Tuesday

New Delhi: The Supreme Court is slated to hear, on Tuesday, a public interest litigation (PIL) challenging the constitutional validity of a provision of the Places of Worship Act, 1991. As per the causelist published on the website of the apex court, a bench of CJI Sanjiv Khanna and Justice Sanjay Kumar will hear the latest plea in the row on April 1. The CJI Khanna-led Bench is already seized of a clutch of pleas challenging the validity of the contentious law, which prohibits the filing of a lawsuit to reclaim a place of worship or seek a change in its character from what prevailed on August 15, 1947. In an interim order passed on December 12, 2024, the Supreme Court had ordered that no fresh suits would be registered under the Places of Worship Act in the country, and in the pending cases, no final or effective orders would be passed till further orders. As per the latest petition filed through advocate Shweta Sinha, Section 4(2) of the 1991 Act is manifestly arbitrary, irrational and violative of Articles 14, 21, 25, and 26 of the Constitution. "This provision not only closes the doors of mediation but also takes away the power of the judiciary. The legislature cannot take away the power of the judiciary to preside over disputes.

This has been done through colourable legislation," stated the plea. In March 2021, a Bench headed by then Chief Justice of India S.A. Bobde sought the Centre's response to the plea filed by advocate Ashwini Upadhyay challenging the validity of certain provisions of the law, prohibiting the filing of a lawsuit to reclaim a place of worship or seek a change in its character from what prevailed on August 15, 1947. The plea said: "The 1991 Act was enacted in the garb of 'public order', which is a state subject (Schedule-7, List-II, Entry-1) and 'places of pilgrimages within India' is also a state subject (Schedule-7, List-II, Entry-7). So, the Centre can't enact the Law. Moreover, Article 13(2) prohibits the State from making a law to take away fundamental rights, but the 1991 Act takes away the rights of Hindus, Jains, Buddhists, and Sikhs, to restore their 'places of worship and pilgrimages', destroyed by barbaric invaders." "The Act excludes the birthplace of Lord Rama but includes the birthplace of Lord Krishna, though both are incarnations of Lord Vishnu, the creator and equally worshipped throughout the world, hence it is arbitrary," it added.

Sonia Gandhi Slams Modi Government Over NEP 2020 Implementation

New Delhi: Former Congress President Sonia Gandhi on Monday has strongly criticized the BJP-led Narendra Modi government over the implementation of the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020. She alleged that the policy is being imposed to serve political objectives without adequate consultation. In a newspaper article, Gandhi accused the central government of using NEP 2020 as a tool to advance its agenda based on the '3Cs'—centralization, commercialization, and communalism. She asserted that the policy undermines the role of state governments in shaping education policies, thereby weakening the federal structure of governance. The dispute over NEP between the Tamil Nadu government and the Centre remains unresolved, with the DMK-led state government opposing the policy. Chief Minister MK Stalin has specifically criticized the imposition of the Hindi language, asserting that Tamil Nadu will not accept such a move. However, Gandhi, while strongly criticizing the central government, did not directly address the Hindi language controversy in her article. The Congress party, a DMK ally, has taken a moderate stance on the language issue, suggesting that Hindi should be learned voluntarily and not be imposed on non-Hindi-speaking states. Highlighting concerns over centralization, Gandhi pointed out that the Central Advisory Board of Education, which includes both central and state education ministers, has not convened since 2019. She condemned the government's unilateral approach to implementing NEP 2020, stating that despite the policy's far-reaching impact, the Centre has failed to consult state governments on its execution. Gandhi further advocated for including education in the Concurrent List of the Constitution to ensure collaborative decision-making between the Centre and states. She emphasized the need for broader democratic discussions and criticized the Modi government for disregarding regional perspectives while formulating national policies.

BELIEVE ME!BELIEVE ME!

(Be Alert)

Boy stress twice!
Believe me, believe me!
There lies something!
Mean hiding the fact
Try to make parent to believe!

Nothing kept secret!
Believe me, believe me!
Husband try to convince wife!
May wish not to reveal!

Certainly I stand on promise!
Believe me, believe me!
Friend again and again repeat!
Knowing well he can not!

Creates belief in true friend!

Be careful when you hear,
Believe me believe me words!
Specially from your near and dear!
So that you can not be deceived!

Vishwanathan Anand - The King of 64 Squares

Born in Chennai, a boy with bright eyes,
Learning the game as a child so wise.
A mothers guidance, a fathers pride,
He moved his knights with instinctive stride.

In a land where cricket roared the loudest,
He carved a path, silent but proudest.
At just fourteen, a prodigy rose,
A National Champion, swift as the wind blows.

The Lightning Kid they called his name,
Blitzing through moves, redefining the game.
With rapid fire and fear-less might,
He outplayed masters in sheer delight.

1991, the World took note,
As he seized the Reggio Emilia coat.
Kasparov, Karpov, legends of old,
Felt the power of this young Indian bold.

Then came 2000, Tehrans Grand night,
A World Champion crowned in dazzling light.
But he was not done, his story grew,
For greater conquests, he still pursued.

2007, in Mexicos air,
He claimed the throne with style so rare.
Defended it once, then once again,
In matches filled with fire and pain.

Kramnik fell, then Topalov too,

Gelfand fought, but Anand broke through.
Five-time king, his reign so long,
A legacy built, steady and strong.

Yet beyond the board, his Nation saw,
A hero worth its highest awe.
The Rajiv Gandhi Khel Ratna came first,
For the Champions ever-growing thirst.

Padma Bhushan followed, then Padma Vibhushan,
Indias love, an undying fusion.
A Grandmaster, a beacon bright,
Who put India in Chesss limelight.

Through formats all—classical, blitz,
His brilliance shone, his strategy fits.
A rapid master, an endgame sage,
He played with wisdom beyond his age.

Even today, the board still gleams,
With Anands shadow in young dreams.
The king may rest, but he wont fade,
For chess in India—his mark is made.

Yet countless moves still shine untold,
A legends story—for ever gold

हम अपने जन्म और जीवन के लक्ष्य को समझे बगैर अपने वास्तविक गंतव्य तक पहुंच नहीं सकते। ... (शकील उवाचा - 317)

जीवन में एक बात को समझना बहुत ही जरूरी है, वह यह के हम अपने जन्म और जीवन के लक्ष्य को समझे बगैर अपने वास्तविक गंतव्य तक पहुंच नहीं सकते। हम इस दुनिया में कहाँ से आए हैं, किस मकसद (उद्देश्य) से आए हैं और इस दुनिया को अलविदा कहके कहाँ जाने वाले हैं जैसे अहम सवालों का जवाब खोजना बहुत ही जरूरी है। विशेषकर हमारे जीवन का लक्ष्य क्या है?

पवित्र कुरान की माने तो हम सब को उस सृष्टिकर्ता, पालनहार परमात्मा ने अपनी भक्ती के लिए बनाया है। यहां एक बात याद दिलाते चलूँ के, ईश्वर की भक्ती केवल पूजा — प्रार्थना, नमाज़ — रोजा, हज — तीर्थयात्रा और रोजा — उपवास को ही नहीं कहते बल्के परमात्मा के आदेशानुसार गुजारा हुआ हर लम्हा (क्षण) और परमात्मा के आज्ञाओं के पालन में ली जाने वाली हर सांस (रवांस) भक्ती ही कहलाती है।

पवित्र कुरान में आया है के, "और मैं (अल्लाह सु.) ने जिन्न और मनुष्यों को उसी गरज (केवल इसलिए) पैदा किया कि वह मेरी इबादत करें"। न तो मैं उनसे रोजी (उपजीविका) का तालिब (इच्छुक) हूँ और न यह चाहता हूँ कि मुझे खाना खिलाएं।" (पवित्र कुरान, अध्याय क्रमांक 51, सुराह अज-जहारियात, आयत क्रमांक 56 — 57)।

पवित्र कुरान में जिन्न का उल्लेख लगभग 29 बार किया गया है। जिन्न परमात्मा की एक सृष्टि है। जैसे परमात्मा ने हमें मिट्टी से बनाया वैसे ही जिन्नात को आग से बनाया है। जैसे के जिन्नात के बारे में पवित्र कुरान में आया है के, "और हम (ईश्वर) ने जिन्नात को आदमी से पहिले बेधुएं की तेज आग से बनाया।" (पवित्र कुरान, अध्याय 15, सूरह अल हिज, आयत क्रमांक 27)। "और उसी (ईश्वर) ने जिन्नात को आग के शोलों से पैदा किया।" (पवित्र कुरान, अध्याय 55, सूरह अर रहमान, आयत क्रमांक 15)। और इसी तरह अध्याय क्रमांक 7, सूरह अल आराफ, आयत क्रमांक 38 — 179 में भी जिन्नात का जिक्र (उल्लेख) आया है।

जिस तरह पवित्र वेदों में एकीश्वर की भक्ती करने का आदेश है वैसे ही इस्लाम ने पवित्र कुरान के अध्याय 113 में अल्लाह (सु.) का परिचय दिया गया है। उसी एक अल्लाह (सु.) की इबादत (भक्ती) करने का हुक्म दिया गया है। उसी परमेश्वर की उपासन करने को कहा गया है जिसने पूरी कायनात (सृष्टि) को पैदा किया है स वह एक है , ना वह किसी की संतान है और ना ही उसकी कोई संतान है।

और कहा गया है के ना उसने जन्म लिया ना ही उसे मौत आती है। वही अव्वल (आदी) है और वही आखिर (अंत) है। वही रिज्क (उपजीविका) देने वाला रब (पालनहार) है, हर चीज को उस सृष्टिकर्ता ने ही पैदा किया है। जीवन और मरण का स्वामी वही है। वही जिंदगी देता है और वही मौत देता है। और मरने के बाद फिर से हम सभी को वही दोबारा जिंदा करेगा स वह हर चीज़ पर कादिर (प्रभुत्व रखने वाला) है।
