India deeply values historic ties, says PM Modi as he embarks on 2-day visit to Saudi Arabia

New Delhi:

Prime Minister Narendra Modi has said that India's historic ties with Saudi Arabia have acquired strategic depth and momentum in recent years, and together have developed a mutually beneficial and substantive partnership. PM Modi said this in his departure statement while embarking on a landmark two-day State visit from Tuesday to the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia at the invitation of Crown Prince and Prime Minister Prince Mohammed bin Salman. Before embarking, he posted on his X handle, "Leaving for Jeddah, Saudi Arabia, where I will be attending various meetings and programmes. India values our historic relations with Saudi Arabia. Bilateral ties have gained significant momentum in the last decade. I look forward to participating in the 2nd Meeting of the Strategic Partnership Council. I will also be interacting with the Indian community there." He said that India deeply values its historic relations with Saudi Arabia, which have now gained momentum, resulting in substantive partnership in various fields, including defence and trade. "India deeply values its long and historic ties with Saudi Arabia that have acquired strategic depth and momentum in recent years. Together, we have developed a mutually beneficial and substantive partnership including in the domains of defence, trade, investment, energy and people-to-people ties," said PM Modi in a statement released by the government. He said that the two countries have shared interests and commitment to promote regional peace, prosperity, security and stability. This is PM Modi's third visit to the country in the last decade, but the first one to Jeddah. He will be participating in the second meeting of the Strategic Partnership Council. "This will be my third visit to Saudi Arabia over the past decade and a first one to the historic city of Jeddah. I look forward to participating in the 2nd Meeting of the Strategic Partnership Council and build upon the highly successful State visit of my brother His Royal Highness Prince Mohammed bin Salman to India in 2023," said PM Modi. Apart from the bilateral talks, PM Modi will also be meeting the Indian diaspora. "I am also eager to connect with the vibrant Indian community in Saudi Arabia that continues to serve as the living bridge between our nations and (is) making immense contribution to strengthening the cultural and human ties," the statement mentioned. PM Modi's earlier visits to the Kingdom were in 2016 and 2019. The visit follows the State Visit of His Royal Highness Prince Mohammed bin Salman, Crown Prince and Prime Minister of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, to New Delhi in September 2023 to attend the G20 Summit and co-chair the first meeting of the India-Saudi Arabia Strategic Partnership Council. The Ministry of External Affairs, in a statement, said that India and Saudi Arabia share close and friendly ties with a long history of socio-cultural and trade contacts. The visit of the Prime Minister reflects the importance India attaches to its bilateral relationship with the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. "It will provide an opportunity to further deepen and strengthen our multi-faceted partnership, as well as to exchange views on various regional and international issues of mutual interest," said MEA.

Use WhatsApp governance services: Collector Basha

Kurnool: District Collector P Ranjith Basha has called upon the public to actively utilise the WhatsApp Governance services recently launched by the State government. On Monday, the Collector officially released the poster for "AP Government WhatsApp Services" at Sunayana Auditorium in the Collectorate. Speaking at the event, the Collector explained that the state government introduced WhatsApp Governance service, accessible via number 9552300009, to bring a multitude of citizen services directly to the people. This initiative, named "Mana Mitra" and launched on April 15, allows citizens to access over 250 public services conveniently from their homes. He highlighted the platform's ability to provide fast and transparent service delivery for services such as document verification, licenses, tax payments, utility bills, temple bookings, and examination results, effectively eliminating opportunities for corruption and marking a significant advancement in good governance. The Collector stressed that all residents should seize this valuable opportunity to access essential civic services swiftly and efficiently.

The platform's user-friendly design includes Artificial Intelligence support for voice-based services, going beyond simple text messaging. He further announced that SMS-based services will soon be available for individuals without smartphones. By integrating data from all departments through the Real-Time Governance System (RTGS), services will be personalized and delivered based on each citizen's information. The system also incorporates features like QR code-based document verification. Currently, the "Mana Mitra" WhatsApp service is accessible in both Telugu and English, with plans for future expansion to include more languages. Joint Collector Dr B Navya, DRO C Venkata Narayanamma, Zilla Parishad CEO Nasar Reddy, and other officials participated in the event.

हम सभी का सृष्टिकर्ता एक ही ईश्वर है जो हमारा संरक्षक भी है जिसे किसी की भी दृष्टि उस को नहीं समझती लेकिन वह परमात्मा सभी दृष्टियों को समझता है। पवित्र कुरान में आया है के, "ऐ लोगों! वही अल्लाह (ईश्वर) तुम्हारा पालहार है, उसके सिवा और कोई माबूद (पूजनीय) नहीं। वह हर चीज का पैदा करने वाला है तो उसकी इबादत (उपासना) करो और वही हर चीज का निगहबान (संरक्षक) है। (पवित्र कुरान, अध्याय क्रमांक 06, सुराह अल अनआम, आयत क्रमांक 102)।

इसके बाद की आयत में फिर कहा गया है के, "उस (ईश्वर) को आँखें नहीं देख सकती (न दुनिया में ना ही आखेरत याने प्रलय में) और वह नज़रों को खूब देखता है। और वह बड़ा बारीकबीन (सूक्ष्म दर्शी) और खबरदार (सर्वज्ञ) है।" (पवित्र कुरान, अध्याय क्रमांक 06, सुराह अल अनआम, आयत क्रमांक 103)।

ईश्वर को कोई आँख नहीं देख सकती यह बात क्या केवल किसी एक विशेष धर्मग्रंथों में है? नहीं, बिल्कुल नहीं। यही बात सभी धर्मग्रंथों में हमें देखने को मिलेगी। हम चाहे अपने प्रकृति के अनुसार चाहे जिसे पूज्य बना ले लेकिन उस सृष्टिकर्ता, पालनहार परमात्मा के व्यतिरिक्त कोई पूजनीय, उपासक नहीं हो सकता। इसलिए उसी एक ईश्वर की उपासना करने की बात धर्म कहता है।

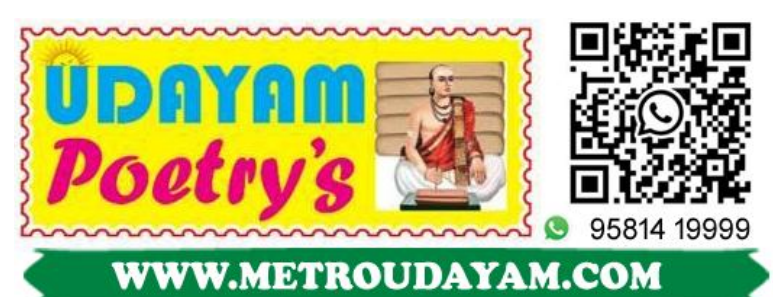

केनोपनिषद में भी हम यही बात देख सकते हैं। जिसमें

स्पष्ट रूप से कहा गया है के, "जिसे कोई नेत्र से नहीं देखता बल्के जिसकी सहायता से नेत्र (अपने विषय को) देखते हैं उसी को तो ब्रह्म जान, जिस (देशकालावच्छिन्न वस्तु) की लोक उपासना करता है ब्रह्म नहीं है।" (केनोपनिषद, गीताप्रेस गोरखपुर द्वारा प्रकाशित केनोपनिषद, सानुवाद शांकारभाष्यसहित (पद - भाष्य एवं वाक्य - भाष्य), 01/06, पुष्ट क्रमांक 51)।

वह परमात्मा आँख न रखते हुए सब कुछ देखने वाला, कान न रखते हुए सब कुछ सुनने वाला है। और सभी के कर्मों का प्रतिफल न्याय के साथ देने वाला सर्वशक्तिमान भी वही एक ईश्वर है। केनोपनिषद में यह भी स्पष्ट रूप से कहा गया है के, "जिसे कोई कान से नहीं सुनता बल्कि जिससे यह श्रोतेंद्रिय सुनी जाती है उसी को तो ब्रह्म जान, जिस (देशकालावच्छिन्न वस्तु) की लोक उपासना करता है ब्रह्म नहीं है।" (केनोपनिषद, गीताप्रेस गोरखपुर द्वारा प्रकाशित केनोपनिषद, सानुवाद शांकारभाष्यसहित (पद - भाष्य एवं वाक्य - भाष्य), 01/07, पुष्ट क्रमांक 52)।

हम सभी का आदर, सम्मान, सत्कार करते हुए, किसीका किसी तरह का अपमान न करते हुए, बेहतरीन कर्मों के साथ जीवन बिताना बहुत जरूरी है। लेकिन उपासना तो केवल उसी एकीश्वर की करना चाहिए जो वास्तव में हम सभी का सृष्टिकर्ता पालनहार परमात्मा है।

Keep the Flame Alive

There are times when silence surrounds us, Not from peace, but from retreat— Moments when the World feels distant, And the spark within begins to fade.

We drift away, Not always by choice, But by the quiet weight of weariness, By the illusion that solitude is strength.

Yet even the brightest fire dims When pulled from the circle of warmth. A single flame, alone, cannot endure the cold— It flickers, gasps, and turns to ash.

We were not meant To burn in isolation. We were made for connection, For shared light, for mutual rise.

In each heart lives a fire— Sometimes roaring, Sometimes barely aglow. But when joined with others, It becomes a beacon.

A touch, a word, a presence, Can rekindle what was fading.

What seems lost, Is often just waiting For a little warmth to return.

Do not retreat too long. Do not let silence become your shelter. There is power in togetherness, And Grace in being seen.

We keep each other alive, In ways both loud and quiet. We lift, we hold, we remember— That no Soul is meant To burn out alone.

So wherever you are— In joy, in sorrow, in stillness— Stay open. Reach out. Return to the fire.

And keep the flame alive.

Minister conducts surprise inspections at several govt offices in Kovelakuntla

Banaganapalle (Nandyal district): Minister BC Janardhan Reddy conducted surprise inspections at multiple government offices in Kovelakuntla, including 5th Village Secretariat, Health Clinic Centre, and DRDA Velugu office on Monday. During the visits, the Minister expressed strong displeasure over the irresponsible behaviour of some officials in discharging their duties. He reviewed the attendance records and personally verified the presence and performance of staff at each facility. Minister Janardhan Reddy stressed the importance of accountability and responsibility in public service, urging employees to fulfill their assigned duties diligently and serve the public with transparency and dedication. While inspecting Kovelakuntla-2 Health Clinic Centre, the Minister was visibly upset over the unhygienic conditions. He pointed out that despite the State government implementing flagship programmes like Swachh Andhra with great pride, there appears to be little change in the attitude of some government staff. Later, at DRDA Velugu office, the Minister inspected ongoing training programmes. The women undergoing tailoring training told the Minister that there are sewing machines but no chairs. Responding immediately, the Minister ordered the officials concerned over phone to solve the issue at the earliest. The DRDA Velugu officer assured the Minister that chairs would be arranged shortly.

Soori leads the charge in emotionally charged sports drama 'Mandaadi'

RS Infotainment, the prestigious banner helmed by Elred Kumar, has officially launched its 16th production — Mandaadi, a riveting sports action drama written and directed by Selfie fame Mathimaran Pugazhendhi. The film stars Soori in the lead, marking another milestone in his transformation into a compelling performer in content-rich cinema. Telugu actor Suhas makes his Tamil debut alongside Mahima Nambiar, adding a pan-South Indian appeal to the project. Unveiled at a grand media event on April 19, the film's first look poster has already stirred excitement across audiences and industry insiders. Set against the scenic and culturally rich coastal backdrop of Ramanathapuram, Mandaadi dives into the intense and adrenaline-pumping world of sailboat racing. The term "Mandaadi" locally refers to a seasoned seafarer — an expert who leads fishing expeditions by mastering oceanic patterns. This metaphor lays the foundation for the film's narrative which explores leadership, intuition, and survival in treacherous waters. The ensemble cast boasts stalwarts like Sathyaraj, Ravindra Vijay, Achyuth Kumar, and Sachana Namidass, all of whom add emotional depth to the film's storytelling. With G.V. Prakash Kumar scoring the music, cinematography by S.R. Kathir ISC, and action choreography by Peter Hein, the technical brilliance of Mandaadi is guaranteed. A documented preview of sailboat racing was screened during the launch, offering an electrifying glimpse into the world the film intends to capture. With Vetri Maaran on board as Creative Producer, director Mathimaran assured, "Mandaadi is more than a sports film — it's a deeply human story about resilience, connection, and identity." Principal photography begins soon, promising a gripping cinematic ride through grit, emotion, and the spirit of coastal sport.

Amit Mishra denounces 'incorrect' media reports claiming his name in domestic violence case

New Delhi: Former India spinner Amit Mishra has categorically rejected the "incorrect" and "unrelated" media reports claiming he and his family members were booked in domestic violence and dowry harassment filed by the cricketer's wife. According to reports, Mishra's wife has filed a complaint seeking Rs 1 crore in compensation and has also alleged that the cricketer's family demanded Rs 10 lakh and a car at the time of their wedding. The 42-year-old not only rejected the claims but also threatened to take legal action for using his name and image in "unrelated stories". "I'm extremely disappointed by what's being circulated in the media. I've always respected the press, but while the news itself may be accurate, the photograph used is mine—which is completely incorrect. Using my image for unrelated stories must stop immediately, or I will be forced to take legal action," Mishra wrote on X. The spinner has played 22 Tests, 36 ODIs and 10 T20Is for India, claiming 76, 64 and 16 scalps, respectively. He has also scored four half-centuries in red-ball cricket. Mishra has represented four different IPL franchises over his career, including the now-defunct Deccan Chargers, as well as Delhi Capitals, Lucknow Super Giants, and Sunrisers Hyderabad. He has taken 174 wickets in 162 matches, maintaining an economy rate of 7.37. The leg-spinner remains the only bowler to have bagged three hat-tricks in the history of IPL, achieving the landmark with three distinct IPL franchises. His last appearance in competitive cricket came in the IPL 2024 season when he played just one game for Rajasthan Royals against Lucknow Super Giants. He claimed the figures of 1-20 in his two overs after coming in as an impact substitute in place of Riyan Parag.

The much-celebrated and award-winning film Muthayya is now all set for its grand digital release on ETV Win. Directed by Bhaskhar Maurya, the film stars K. ED notice to Mahesh Babu in money laundering case linked to realty firms

Hyderabad: The Enforcement Directorate has summoned top Tollywood actor Mahesh Babu in a money laundering case linked to realty firms Surana Group and Sai Surya Developers. Hyderabad sightseeing The central agency has asked the actor to appear for an inquiry on April 27. Mahesh Babu is the brand ambassador for the two firms and reportedly received over Rs 11 crore for appearing in their advertisements. While Surana Group reportedly paid Rs 5.5 crore to the actor, he received Rs 5.9 crore from Sai Surya Developers for promotional activities. The ED is likely to investigate the remuneration paid to Mahesh Babu by the two firms. The ED notice to Mahesh Babu came less than a week after it conducted searches at the premises of the realty firms in Hyderabad. The agency said that unaccounted cash transactions worth Rs 100 crore were unearthed and Rs 74.5 lakh cash seized during searches in connection with an ongoing investigation against Sai Surya Developers and others. Hyderabad sightseeing The central agency conducted searches at four premises in Hyderabad and Secunderabad on April 17 under the provisions of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA), 2002. The ED stated that it initiated investigation based on several FIRs registered by Telangana Police against Narendra Surana, Director of Bhagyanagar Properties Ltd., K. Sathish Chandra Gupta, Proprietor of Sai Surya Developers and others under various sections of IPC for defrauding and cheating gullible investors of their hard earned money in the name of advance for sale of plots involving huge amounts. The ED investigation revealed that the accused orchestrated fraudulent schemes involving unauthorised land layouts, selling the same plots to different customers, accepting payments without proper agreements, and false assurances of plot registrations. "Their actions caused financial losses to numerous investors. By cheating the general public with predetermined and dishonest intention, they generated proceeds of crime which were diverted and laundered for wrongful gain to themselves and related entities," the agency said. Hyderabad sightseeing The ED searches resulted in the seizure of incriminating documents evidencing details of amounts collected by fraudulent means from various investors and unaccounted cash transactions worth around Rs 100 crore. Unaccounted cash amounting to Rs 74.50 lakh was seized from the premises of Narendra Surana and Surana Group of companies, said the ED, adding that further investigation is in progress.
