आदमी में जब हठधर्मी बढ़ जाती है तो वह फिर कटहुज्जती पे उतर आता है। कटहुज्जती बुराई का बीज है। जिसे अपनी इज्जत प्यारी हो उसे कटहुज्जती छोड़ देना चाहिए।.. (शकील उवाचा -389)

मुहब्बत नहीं हो सकती, प्यार मुहब्बत का धोका है। क्योंकि, पैगंबर साहब मोहम्मद (स्व.) के पहिले उत्तराधिकारी इमाम अली इब्न अबू तालिब अलैहिस्सलाम कहते हैं के, "कटहुज्जती के साथ मुहब्बत नहीं।" (हैदरी कुतुबखाना, मुंबई द्वारा प्रकाशित उर्दू पुस्तक तजल्लियाते हिकमत, कटहुज्जती 179, हदीस क्रमांक 04, पुष्ट क्रमांक 429)।

कभी कभी समाज में हमें दो तरह के लोगों के साथ सामना पड़ता है। उसमें से कुछ लोग बेवकूफ (मूर्ख) होते हैं तो दूसरे फकी होते हैं। फकी इस शब्द के दो अर्थ हैं एक अर्थ यह है के, विधिवेत्ता, धार्मिक कानूनों के विद्वान, समझदार और दूसरा अर्थ होता है गरीब, फकीर धार्मिक जीवन जीने के लिए समर्पित व्यक्ति।

जब हम हमारे कटहुज्जती के अवगुण के कारण बेवकूफ और फकी दोनों ही लोगों के साथ कटहुज्जती पर उतर आते हैं तो दोनों ही से किए जाने वाली कटहुज्जती हमें नुकसान पहुंचाएगी। कटहुज्जती के कारण हम फकी से लाभ उठाने से, भलाइयों से वंचित तो रह जाते ही हैं लेकिन मूर्ख व्यक्ति अपने व्यवहार से हमें कष्ट जरूर पहुंचाता है।

The Perfect Partner

Marriage is not bound by the shade of ones skin, nor by the height we measure in inches or pride. It is not stitched into the fabric of age or weight, but carved in the quiet courage of two hearts that choose, again and again, to walk side by side.

Two Souls step into the wilderness of life, not as perfect beings, but as pilgrims with lanterns of hope, lighting each others path through fog and Sun. They do not promise the absence of storms only the shelter of arms when thunder rolls.

Beauty will fade like petals in autumn, and youth, that swift river, will slip away. But love—love stays like roots beneath the Earth, deep and unseen, holding everything steady.

It is not in flawless smiles or timed arrivals, but in the patience to wait, the grace to listen, the strength to forgive and the joy of becoming new again, together.

Do not delay love for mirrors or calendars. Life does not pause—it dances on, scattering golden moments like pollen in the wind. To wait too long is to miss the song that was always meant for you.

The perfect partner is not found, but recognized in laughter over shared bread, in silence that feels safe, in the way one Soul says to another: I see you. I choose you. I will walk with you.

Marriage is not a portrait of perfection, but a living, breathing canvas brushed with kindness, layered with trust, and signed with time, by two artists who choose to create love every single day.

क्या आप सहमत हैं?

आपका मन मेहनतकर लोगों को मानव के रूप में देखे बिना उनके निर्दयी शोषण को कैसे स्वीकार कर सकता है?

जब कुछ लोग वही खा रहे हैं जो बाकी सभी खा रहे हैं, तो आप खुद को कैसे मनाएंगे कि आप उसका विरोध न करें?

जब आप अपने पेट में जमा मल को बाहर देखते हैं तो आपको गुस्सा आता है, है न? आप यह कैसे स्वीकार कर सकते हैं कि आप उन लोगों का सम्मान नहीं करते जो मल को साफ करते हैं, यहाँ तक कि अपमानित होने की हद तक?

आप अपनी सेवा करने वालों को छोटा दिखाने, श्रम और श्रमिकों का अपमान करने के लिए इतने तत्पर कैसे हो सकते हैं?

आप किसी व्यक्ति को शिक्षा और चिकित्सा के अलावा, उसकी हर जरूरत की चीज मुफ्त में देने को कैसे तैयार हो सकते हैं?

आप अपने जैसे लोगों को इतना नीची नजर से कैसे देख सकते हैं, जो आपकी आशाओं और इच्छाओं के समान हैं?

आप अपने साथी मनुष्यों को भूख

से पीड़ित रहने के लिए द/ए कैसे छोड़ सकते हैं, जबकि आप पीड़ियों तक बैठकर खाते रहेंगे और कभी समाप्त न होने वाली संपत्ति इकट्ठा करेंगे?

उन लोगों को बांटना और बांटना जिनकी कोई जाति नहीं है, जमीन नहीं है, पानी नहीं है, आग नहीं है, हवा नहीं है... आप इसके बारे में कैसा महसूस करते हैं?

आप यह कैसे स्वीकार कर सकते हैं कि जिन बच्चों ने कभी जाति के आधार पर भेदभाव की अशुभता का अनुभव नहीं किया है, उन्हें भी जाति चेतना सिखाई जानी चाहिए?

आप अस्थायी रंगीन कागजों को मूल्य देकर जीवित लोगों को चोट पहुंचाने के लिए इतने इच्छुक कैसे हो सकते हैं?

नस्लीय भेदभाव पैदा करके जो हासिल किया गया है, उसके प्रति आप इतने उदासीन कैसे हो सकते हैं और उसकी सराहना भी नहीं कर सकते?

हम जो लोगों को इंसान के रूप में नहीं देख पाते, वे पूरी तरह से असहाय हैं। हम इंसान हैं। हम समान हैं। हम न्याय में समान हैं। हम धर्म में समान हैं। मानवीय विशेषता इसका अभ्यास करना है। मानव सेवा ही सच्ची सेवा है।

HUMANITY!

Rich or poor!
Weak or strong!
May belong to any religion!
Ugly or beautiful!
That's not the matter!

First of all we are all humans!
Living under one sky!
Drinking same water!
Breathing one air!
Satisfying appetite with food!

More over birth and death are alike!
Sorrow and difficulties are same!
The question is kind hearted or not?
Are we extending moral support to needy!
Are we sharing the feelings of co people!

Break the barriers of caste!
Open the doors to down trodden!
Do not look down upon weakers!
Manliness is the godliness!
Nothing match with humanism!

Let us at least now take a pledge!
"We give most priority to humanism only!
Since all human beings are equal!

Anderson kept celebrated Indian batting line-up on their toes

To say the least, a relatively inexperienced batting line up led by Shubman Gill would be relieved to see the name of James Anderson, once a constant in the multiple chapters of India-England rivalry over the past two decades, missing in the opposition roster. From Anderson's first series against India in 2006 to the last one in 2024, the age defying fast bowler kept the celebrated Indian batting line-up on their toes -- his battles with the great Sachin Tendulkar in late 2000s or the much more animated duels with Virat Kohli in the previous decade still fresh in one's mind. Fast forward to 2025, both India and England have moved on from Kohli and Anderson respectively but considering the injuries to the likes of Jofra Archer and Mark Wood, Ben Stokes may have indulged in wishful thinking, imagining the holder of a record 704 Test wickets opening the bowling at Leeds. If Anderson can return to county cricket to bail out a struggling Lancashire 12 months after his fitting farewell, trust him to do the same for a depleted England attack. That is unlikely to happen but by sheer weight of his performances over his 21-year-old career, Anderson has immortalised himself in India-England cricket history with the series trophy named after him and Tendulkar, whom he was able to dismiss nine times. Anderson not only defied age to last as long as he did for a fast bowler, the hallmark of his career was relentless accuracy and exemplary control over his ability to swing the ball both ways. Courtesy these special skills, Anderson was able to exploit Kohli's weakness around the off-stump in the 2014 series before the latter overcame those mental demons four years later to "dominate" the world's most prolific pacer in the longest format. "I really exploited, he had a weakness outside off stump, really exploited that and then the next time I played against him (in 2018) he'd obviously gone away and worked on that and it was like bowling at a different player," Anderson told talkSport recently. Come Friday, the likely opening combination of K L Rahul and Yashasvi Jaiswal will have one less challenge to deal with: no Anderson with a brand new Dukes ball. In the 39 Tests he played against India home and away, Anderson amassed 149 wickets at a very fine average of 25.47. The best of fast bowlers struggled in India but he reinvented his game to end with 44 wickets in 17 Tests in polar opposite conditions. His mastery of reverse swing allowed him to do that. Former England opener Nick Knight said the Indian batting line up minus Kohli and Rohit Sharma would be happy to see Anderson out of the park but England made the right call by looking at the future. "England will move forward now. And they've got plenty of talent, plenty of abilities like all these guys. But I'm certainly sure that India would be happy to see him getting retired now. "And I think the last series that India won (in England) was in 2007, probably Jimmy was part of that series as well. So, he's been a constant," Knight told PTI. He feels the timing to rename the trophy after Tendulkar and Anderson could not be better. "It's a very, very fine tribute. And the right sort of timing for the Jimmy Anderson-Tendulkar trophy. Just the kind of right thing to do in such an iconic series. I played with Jimmy when he first came in. "I was sort of someone at the back end of my career. And he was just starting out. You could see right from the start he was a lad who had great control of the swinging ball. "And very little discernible difference between the one that went in and the one that went away. I think that of all the little skills he had, technically that was a great skill. It's very difficult to predict which way the ball was going out of his hand.

Gambhir will enjoy young captain Gill with him, says Manjrekar

New Delhi: As India begin a new chapter in red-ball cricket under the leadership of Shubman Gill, former cricketer Sanjay Manjrekar believes that the team's head coach Gautam Gambhir is set for an exciting partnership with the young Test captain. The five-match Test series against England, beginning June 20 at Headingley, Leeds, will also mark the start of India's campaign in the 2025-27 World Test Championship (WTC) cycle — and the first major challenge of the Gill-Gambhir era. Speaking to ESPNcricinfo, Manjrekar highlighted the potential harmony between Gambhir and Gill, drawing parallels with the T20I setup where Gambhir is also expected to work with another young captain, Suryakumar Yadav, following Rohit Sharma's retirement from the shortest format. "Gautam Gambhir, as coach, will enjoy a young captain with him," said Manjrekar. "You can see him as a coach when he's playing with Suryakumar Yadav as the Indian captain versus, you know, Rohit Sharma. He'll enjoy that job. So there's going to be a better kind of relationship between the captain and the coach." Manjrekar further compared Gill's appointment to the time when Mohammed Azharuddin was unexpectedly made captain in 1989 after Krishnamachari Srikkanth was removed. He believes the situation Gill walks into bears a similar sense of freedom. "The advantage that Shubman Gill has, this team has, it was a bit like the team in the 90s when we went to New Zealand, where Mohammed Azharuddin, out of the blue as a young cricketer, was made the captain. You go with the feeling that you've got nothing to lose." With the sudden retirements of senior stalwarts Rohit Sharma and Virat Kohli from Test cricket last month, India found itself in the midst of a generational transition. Jasprit Bumrah, the other logical contender for the role, reportedly opted out of leadership due to his injury history - a decision that, according to Manjrekar, may have left Gill as the natural, if not inevitable, choice. "The big names have gone, Bumrah is not the captain, Gill, it's almost like Gill had to do the job," Manjrekar explained. "So you're not going to feel the pressure. And I think, because India and the selectors made such a big call, they'll back him and be supportive." Gill, who has played 32 Tests and scored 1,893 runs including five centuries, will lead a largely youthful side into hostile English conditions. While still early in his career, Gill already has leadership experience, having captained the Gujarat Titans to the IPL 2025 playoffs.
