KTR reaches Press Club after accepting CM Revanth Reddy's debate challenge

Bharat Rashtra Samithi (BRS) working president K.T. Rama Rao on Tuesday reached Somajiguda Press Club in Hyderabad for a public debate with Chief Minister A. Revanth Reddy on farmers' issues. Hyderabad travel guide Rama Rao, who had accepted the Chief Minister's challenge for the debate, reached the Press Club along with several party leaders. Addressing the party leaders, he alleged that the Chief Minister was running away from debate after throwing the challenge.

"We came to know that the Chief Minister is in Delhi. We were ready for debate with Deputy Chief Minister, Agriculture Minister or any Minister but nobody turned up," he said. He alleged that 600 farmers committed suicide during the last 18 months. He said the Congress betrayed people after coming to power by making 420 promises and six guarantees. KTR claimed that he has brought the list of farmers who committed suicide, whose loans were not waived and who were not given a bonus and the financial aid under Rythu Bharosa. Stating that water, funds and jobs were the key issues during the Telangana movement, KTR alleged that Chief Minister Revanth Reddy is diverting river waters to his friend, Andhra Pradesh Chief Minister Chandrababu Naidu, sending funds to Delhi and giving jobs to his people. On the reports that Revanth Reddy was visiting Delhi to get "fertiliser bags" for the state, the BRS leader remarked that "people know what bags he was carrying to Delhi to save his chair". Police stepped up security at Press Club since morning as a large number of BRS leaders and workers gathered there. Before leaving for Press Club, KTR told media persons at the BRS office, Telangana Bhavan, that he was ready to debate on farm loan waiver, bonus for paddy and all other issues related to farmers. Addressing a meeting of Congress workers on July 4 in the presence of Congress president Mallikarjun Kharge, the Chief Minister had thrown a challenge for public debate on what the previous BRS government did and what the Congress government was doing for the welfare of farmers. Accepting the challenge, KTR had offered to meet at any location chosen by the Chief Minister - whether in CM Reddy's constituency Kodangal, his native village Kondareddypally, or even at the Ambedkar statue or Somajiguda Press Club in Hyderabad. When there was no response from the Chief Minister, the BRS leader declared that he was ready for debate at the Press Club. The BRS leader said that it has become the Chief Minister's habit to run away after throwing a challenge for debates. KTR said he was ready for a debate with the Chief Minister on any issue. KTR said that they were ready for debate even in the Assembly, provided their mikes were not cut in the middle. The former minister alleged that the Congress government failed to implement even one out of 420 poll promises. He said the BRS had been questioning the government for the last 18 months for failing to honour its commitments

Permissions One Thing, Construction Another

Illegal construction in Akkayyapalems NGOs Colony, 26th Ward, with the support of the local corporator — violations of approved plans

Officials causing loss of revenue to GVMC

Town planning department blind to the construction

No proper action taken by secretariat staff despite having documents

GVMC administration remains unresponsive to inquiries

Visakhapatnam - Illegal constructions are running rampant in Zone-3, Ward 26, Akkayyapalem, under the jurisdiction of the Greater Visakhapatnam Municipal Corporation (GVMC), with no one seeming to care. Construction is being carried out overnight, in blatant violation of approved building plans, with the funds meant for GVMC allegedly being pocketed by private individuals. Even without required permissions, constructions are proceeding boldly, citing the names of local corporators for support.

The details are as follows: In Sector 6 of NGOs Colony, which falls under the North Assembly constituency, a G+2 (Ground plus two floors) building was approved by GVMC. However, an additional floor is being constructed openly, in clear violation of the sanctioned plan. The fact that such construction escapes the notice of GVMC officials is shocking to the public.

In and around Visakhapatnam, there are several such multi-story buildings being constructed without any official permits. It is being alleged that the planning secretary at the ward secretariat level, zonal TPOs (Town Planning Officers), and ACP-level officials are providing protection to these illegal constructions. The approved plan is one, but the actual construction is entirely different. Locals are stunned that despite the addition of extra floors, no action is being taken.

The buildings under construction bear no resemblance to the approved GVMC plan, which is deeply concerning. It is surprising that both ward secretariat planning officials and GVMC authorities are turning a blind eye to these developments. On one hand, GVMC staff are taking strict actions against small-scale violations by the poor for their residential needs. On the other hand, they are failing to act against large-scale illegal multi-story constructions. This selective enforcement is drawing strong criticism. Locals are now urging GVMC authorities to immediately investigate the construction in question and take appropriate action against the responsible parties.

दोस्ती की खुशबू

दोस्ती की डोर, मजबूत है,
दोस्ती की राह, आसान नहीं है।
दोस्ती में विश्वास, सबसे जरूरी है,
दोस्ती की निमाना, एक कला है।

दोस्ती में हम, एक दूसरे के साथ हैं,
दोस्ती में हम, एक दूसरे का साथ देते हैं।
दोस्ती की भावना, सच्ची है,
दोस्ती की मित्रता, अमिट है।

दोस्ती में हम, एक दूसरे का दर्द समझते हैं,
दोस्ती में हम, एक दूसरे का साथ देते हैं।
दोस्ती की डोर, कभी नहीं टूटती,
दोस्ती की मित्रता, कभी नहीं भूलती।

दोस्ती में हम, एक दूसरे के लिए जीते हैं,
दोस्ती में हम, एक दूसरे का साथ निभाते हैं।
दोस्ती की भावना, सच्ची और पवित्र है,
दोस्ती की मित्रता, जीवन भर साथ

दरकार

तेरी तमन्ना में बस मेरा इबादत है।
तेरी मोहब्बत में अब मेरा गुजारा है।
तेरी वफा की रौनक में मेरा रुतबा है।
तेरे दिल की मन्नत में मेरा जन्मत है।

मेरी शान तेरी निगाहों की बंदोलत है।
मेरी जान तेरी इकरार की मोहताज है।
मेरे घड़कन तेरी सांसों के दरकार है।
मेरा रूह भी तेरा रूप का साकार है।

जलवा क्या होंगा बिन तेरे सब फीकी।
आफत भी क्या होगी तेरी जुदाई से भारी।
मुरख्त में सब क्यों कहेंगे बात भी खोटी।
जुलमें तेरी बेवफाई नहीं होगा यह छोटी।

हंसकर ना टालो समझो मेरी मजदूरी।
मोहब्बत में जीने से और क्या है जरूरी।
मैं दीवाना तेरा मुझे नहीं कोई मजबूरी।
बस मुझे जीना है केवल प्यार में तेरी।

कोई भी व्यक्ति सहज रूप से सत्य और धर्म का साथ नहीं दे सकता। सत्य को प्रस्थापित करने और सत्य पर कायम रहने के लिए हम पर ईश्वर की कृपा होनी चाहिए। अब सवाल यह उठता है के ईश्वर की कृपा कैसे पाया जाए? एक और बात याद रखना चाहिए के ईश्वर कोई पक्षपाती नहीं है के किसी पर कृपा करे और किसीको अपनी कृपा से वंचित रखे। इस परमात्मा की कृपा पाने के लिए सबसे बड़ी बात हमारी अपनी योग्यता चाहिए होती है।

tion drive is not just a mere initiative, but through this, we are hoping to grow love, peace, and humanity, something that cannot be destroyed today, or ever in the future." Revealing the mindset behind the initiative, he added, "Through this, we aspire to grow something indestructible that actually works for the coming generation, so that they experience the beauty of better living, a healthier and sustainable life. True healing starts when we prioritize the well-being of people and the planet." Jackie is gearing up for Anupam Kher's upcoming directorial "Tanvi: The Great".

BCCI extends warm greetings as Sourav Ganguly turns 53

New Delhi: As former India captain Sourav Ganguly turned 53 on Tuesday, the Board of Control for Cricket in India (BCCI) extended a warm greeting to its ex-president, highlighting his stats from his stellar career. After making his international debut in an ODI match against the West Indies in the 1992 Benson and Hedges World Series, Ganguly served the country for 16 glorious years. The left-hander batter went on to be recognised as one of the greatest batters to have come out of India, particularly in ODIs. He scored 7212 runs in 113 Tests at an average of 42.17 with 16 centuries. In ODI cricket, Ganguly played 311 matches, scoring 11,363 runs at an average of 41.02 with 22 centuries. "424 intl. matches, 18575 intl. runs, 38 intl. centuries. Here's wishing former #TeamIndia Captain and former BCCI President Sourav Ganguly a very Happy Birthday,' BCCI shared in X. Replying to the post, Ganguly, wrote: "Thank you BCCI ..the best sporting organisation in the world." Sourav Ganguly is widely regarded as one of India's most successful and influential cricket captains. He assumed captaincy in 2000 and led the national side in 49 Tests and 146 One-Day Internationals, securing 21 and 76 victories, respectively. Under his captaincy, India began to achieve significant success overseas in Test cricket and mounted an impressive campaign that culminated in reaching the ICC Cricket World Cup final in 2003. Most importantly, Ganguly under his captaincy, gave opportunity and backed a large pool of talented players, who became big match-winners for India. Ganguly holds several notable achievements; He became only the eighth Indian player with over 7,000 runs in Tests and also the ninth-highest centurion in the format for India with 16 tons under his belt. He is one of only eight Indian players to have scored over 7,000 runs in Test cricket and ranks as the ninth-highest century-maker for India in the format, with 16 centuries to his name. In One-Day Internationals, he stands as the eighth-highest run-scorer globally and is among a 14 players to have crossed the 10,000-run milestone. Renowned for rising to the occasion in major ICC tournaments, Ganguly holds the record for the highest individual score by an Indian in a World Cup match (183 in 1999 against Sri Lanka). He also became the first player to score three centuries in a single World Cup edition (2003) and achieved three overall in the ICC Champions Trophy (2000 and 2002). Following his retirement from international cricket, Ganguly transitioned seamlessly into cricket administration. After serving as the president of the Cricket Association of Bengal from 2015 to 2019, he was unanimously elected as president of the Board of Control for Cricket in India (BCCI) and took very key decisions during his tenure from 2019 to 2022.

Kingdom' Starring Vijay Devarakonda to Release Without Hindi Theatrical Version

Telugu cinema news: Vijay Deverakonda's Kingdom has finally been announced. The film starring Bhagyashri and directed by Gowtam Tannanuri is set to be released in Telugu, Tamil and Telugu cinemas on 31st July 2025. Here are the Telugu Movies Updates which is makers have not announced a release date for the Hindi version, despite having released a teaser in Hindi four months earlier. The team may have decided to skip a theatrical release in Hindi, and instead release Saamraajya directly on Netflix. According to reports, Netflix originally had a different agreement with the producers. Due to the multiple delays, Netflix reportedly asked the team to release it in theaters as soon as they could. It wouldn't make sense to OTT release dates the Hindi version of the film without the support of major multiplex chains, and the eight-week rule between a theatrical and OTT updates release would complicate matters. The team has reportedly decided to bypass a theatrical release of the Hindi version in favor of a direct OTT reviews. A team official explanation is still to be received. I feel the producers need to step up the promotion game to create some hype and audiences to the theaters. Keep an eye out for interesting updates about Kingdom. The release of the Telugu Movie HQ Photos has been delayed twice. The film was originally scheduled for a May 30 summer release, but was later changed to July 4. The makers blamed the delay on the increased tensions between India and Pakistan following the Pahalagam terrorist attacks of April 22nd, followed by Operation Sindoor. The release date was again pushed back.
